

Laura Armstrong, Director of Internal Audit, joined CMHA in April of 2008. Prior to arriving at CMHA, Laura worked at the Ohio Auditor of State's Office for seven years, most recently as a Senior Audit Manager. She supervised financial audits of various government entities, including cities, public schools, townships, villages, cemeteries, and community development corporations. In her current role, Laura oversees a growing department responsible for internal audits of CMHA's programs, departments, and processes. She is also responsible for administering the Voluntary Compliance Agreement between CMHA and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, which is a seven-year agreement that provides accessibility to public housing and CMHA programs to persons with disabilities. Laura received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting from Case Western Reserve University in May of 2000, and her Master of Public Administration degree from Cleveland State University in May of 2005. She is a recent graduate of Cleveland State University's Leadership Academy. Laura is a Certified Public Accountant, a member of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, and a member of the Institute of Internal Auditors.
