

Lou Anne Chung, Chief Financial Officer, has more than 35 years of accounting experience and is responsible for the Authority's $233 million dollar budget, which consists of consists of 74 funds represented by more than 1,200 employees. An important asset, Ms. Chung is organized, detail oriented, and provides the financial professionalism necessary to keep the Authority on track to being the leading housing provider in the country. In addition, she streamlined the financial processing for CMHA to maximize office efficiency and has a flawless proven track record. She holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from Baldwin Wallace College with an emphasis in Accounting and Fine Arts as well as an Associates Degree in Business Administration from Cuyahoga Community College. Ms. Chung is also a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Ohio. Prior to joining CMHA in September 1999, Ms. Chung enjoyed a successful career in public accounting as a Senior Account Manager and Field Auditor and later as the Campus Director and Business Director for a multi campus, multi state private business college where she directed the building of two new campuses and managed a staff in excess of 100 people. The overarching core of her experience involves going into business turnaround situations or troubled accounting departments and infusing leadership, solid accounting practices, policies, procedures and systems. While at CMHA, Ms. Chung has successfully led the Financial Services Department from one that could not pass an audit into a department that has successfully achieved unqualified audits for the past eight years.