

Rhonda DeCambre Stroman, Director of Compliance, has over 8 years of experience in the public, private and non-profit sectors. Her areas of specialty include regulatory compliance, government administration, real estate transactions, tax-credit developments, landlord/tenant matters and policy development and enforcement. She commenced employment with the Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority in November 2011 as the Director of Compliance. In that role she oversees CMHA's compliance with internal, local, state and federal regulations and monitors the implementation of a compliance program designed to avert risk for the CMHA. Working closely with both the Internal Audit and Risk Management departments, she monitors internal controls and examines procedures related to procurement, projects, conflict-of-interests and agency contracts.

Ms. DeCambre Stroman received her undergraduate and law degrees, both with Honors, from the University of Florida where she was named to the UF Hall of Fame. She also earned a graduate Diploma in Education from the University of the West Indies in Kingston, Jamaica. She served as a member of the Florida Bar Board of Governors YLD for six years representing the Eighth Judicial Circuit and is an active member of numerous professional, community and social organizations including the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) and the Housing and Development Law Institute (HDLI). She is admitted to the Florida Bar, the Federal District Court and the United States Tax Court.
