Residents celebrate MLK Day at the Golden Age Center

On Friday, January 15, 2010, CMHA held a celebration to commemorate MLK Day at the Paul W. Alandt Golden Age Center.

Nearly 100 residents attended the program, which included remarks from Vice Chairwoman Doris V. Jones, Chief Executive Officer George Phillips-Olivier, Chief of Staff Jeffery Patterson, PAC representative Lauren Anderson, and Distribution Manager Henry Flonnoy, as well as a keynote speech by CMHA Board Chairman Ronald V. Johnson, Jr.

“Our work and our advocacy are to create strong communities that people are proud to call home,” said Chairman Johnson. “That is the American Dream.”

Residents enjoyed a buffet lunch and entertainment from the White House Band and signer Rochelle Brown, who performed “Lift Every Voice and Sing” and “If I Can Help Somebody.”

CMHA’s CEO George Phillips-Olivier urged residents to step up to become mentors for today’s children. “With our help, our children can do anything, but they need our guidance and support to succeed in life.”
