

THE MODERATE REHABILITATION PROGRAM
PUBLIC NOTICE
CLOSING OF WAITING LIST

Effective November 6, 2009 the Moderate Rehabilitation Program (Mod Rehab Program) has closed its Waiting List to increase its applicant pool for One, Two and Three bedroom units. The Mod Rehab waiting list will be ranked by date and time of application. A letter will be forward to you once your application has been processed for the waiting list.

The Mod Rehab Program provides rental assistance for low-income families. The rental assistance for this program is attached to the properties that are listed under the Mod Rehab Program. Rental assistance cannot be transferred to non-Mod Rehab Program properties.

Families must first meet the eligibility requirements to qualify for this program. Please understand that once you have been certified eligible by the CMHA Moderate Rehabilitation Program you will still need to be approved and accepted by the property management of this building. Changes to your family composition as listed on the original application may change your eligible for the Mod Rehab program and /or the number of bedroom for which you are eligible.

The Mod Rehab waiting list will be opened once there is an adequate pool of applicants needed per bedroom size. The HCVP will provide public notice that the Mod Rehab waiting list will be opened.
